Local Department.

The new wheat crop is looking extraordinarily well.

Dr. Maynard has improved the appearance of his place very much.

The registration in this town, foots up 741 names, which is a pretty fair registration.

"Pete" (Ab. Showerman) is up in the North Woods with his gun, in search of blood.

Mrs. Geo. W. Rowe, of Bangor, was in town over Sunday visiting friends. Come often Mrs. R.

Ab. Showerman, Eden Engle, and A. H. Smith, are chasing the sportive deer in the wilds of Northern Michigan.

The oldest inhabitant remembereth not so pleasant a fall as we have had in Michigan, in this year of grace, A. D. 1882.

The Dryden House will probably open about December 1st. When George gets through with it, it will be better than it was when new.

Richard Gleason, Samuel Buskirk, L. B. Sheldon, and several others, started for the north woods on Saturday last, on a hunting expedition.

Frank Taylor, better known as "Gafe" the butcher boy, who is now engaged in the sewing machine business at Owosso, is sojourning here for a few days.

Frank Stearns returned home, from Aberdeen, Dakota, on Friday last. He had been gone some considerable time and his many friends were glad to see him again.

Farmers are very busy husking out the golden ears of corn, but there are some who will not complete this work before snow dies, even if the pleasant weather shall continue until next year.

Married, on Monday, Nov. 6th, 1882, at 4 1/2 p. m., at Niles, by Father Werner, Mr. Joseph J. Carroll of Paw Paw, and Miss Ida Fisk of Lawrence. We wish the happy couple much joy.

The enterprising firm of Duncombe, Stearns & Co., like all other good business men, understand the value of advertising. Just read their double column ad. in this paper and see what they propose to do.

We made a mistake last week in stating that Fred Stevens had been exposed to the small-pox. He is in Niles on business and has not been exposed to the disease at all. We supposed our information was correct.

Charley Voke, formerly a type of this place, but recently appointed freight and passenger agent at Galien, together with his brothers, George and Will, have been spending a few days visiting friends and relatives here.

Prof. C. E. Hutchins closed a very pleasant musical institute at Covert, on Monday evening last, and got home Tuesday in time to vote a Republican ticket. We had the pleasure of attending his concert and it was a very fine one. There are some good voices in Covert, and Mr. H. knows how to make the most of them.

The Board of Registration of Lawrence township, entered four hundred and eighty-five names, on the registry book, leaving some forty or fifty voters out in the cold.

C. S. Hoskins, Esq., has sold his contract to work the Richards' farm in Lawrence to Wm. Abbott of Almena. Mr. Hoskins has removed to his father's farm in Antwerp, and has also taken Asa Glidden's farm. Hoskins says he is never out of a job.

Prof. Dickey, of Albion college, delivered at the Court House, last Saturday evening, one of the finest and most telling temperance addresses to which it was ever our good fortune to listen. Those who failed to attend, missed a rare treat indeed.

Married, in Big Rapids, Mich., Nov. 6th, Mr. Mulford D. Buskirk and Miss Jennie A. Babcock, both of Paw Paw, Mich. The newly married couple left the next morning for Cadillac, Mich., for a short visit, after which they will return home. All wish them joy.

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. A. Hyman left a bundle, either at Fred Avery's or Broughton's store, which some one has probably carried away by mistake. It contained cloth for a sacque, cut and ready to put together. If the party who has it will return it to Fred Avery's store, Mr. Hyman will pay them for the trouble.

Jerry Bridges shipped one car of apples west on Tuesday, Eugene Bridges and Alva Brink one each, Sam'l Hoppin and A. U. Barnes two each. All of the parties accompanied their cars, and are going to see the country. Mr. Hoppin is to select some land for other parties, who are to start for Dakota in the spring.—Reflector.

Elder Ebert closes his labors with the Christian church at this place on Sunday next. The Elder has many warm friends here who will regret to part with him and his estimable family. He may rest assured that he will have their best wishes wherever his lot may be cast. The Northerner is glad to be classed among those who will always remember him kindly.

A bold piece of horse stealing and burglary was perpetrated in our village on Thursday night. The second floor stole the delivery horse and wagon recently purchased by Mr. Lantz of Mr. Nyman, and then broke into the woolen factory and carried off a large amount of cloths and yarn. Certain parties are suspected, and it is hoped that the reward of $100 which has been offered, may lead to the detection of the thieves and return of the property.—Bangor Advance.

On Wednesday evening of last week, as Henry Glidden, of Antwerp, was driving to a neighbor's with two little girls in his wagon, he drove against a stump, the little ones were thrown from the wagon, the team ran away, and got loose from the wagon, and as they reached the railroad track, came in contact with a passing train and both horses were killed. Fortunately none of the occupants of the vehicle were seriously injured, although Mr. G. was considerably bruised.

The Lawrence Times, published by Wilson & Moon, out in an appearance on Saturday last. It is a six column folio and presents a fair appearance. Mr. Wilson is a Paw Paw boy, who has had considerable experience in the printing business, and we have no doubt that both of the editors of the new sheet will use their best endeavors to make it a credit to themselves and its patrons. The newspaper field in this county is pretty thoroughly occupied, nevertheless we trust the boys may meet with the full measure of success which their enterprise and pluck will, doubtless merit.

On Saturday last we took a ride over the new railroad. We went within sight of the village of Hartford. The road is in excellent condition, and it is probable that before these lines are in print the iron will be all laid. It would have been completed, ere this, had it not been for the unaccountable delay in the shipment of iron. Much credit is due to the indomitable energy with which Mr. Huling and the other officers of the road have pushed this enterprise. We predict that the road will prove to be of great importance to this town, as well as to all the other towns along the route.

The following is a list of jurors drawn to attend the next term of our circuit court, viz: John H. Reese, Bangor; A. E. Aldrich, S. H. Spencer Van Ostrand, Geneva; George H. Bradley, Covert; William H. McKee, Pine Grove; Geo. W. Failing, Almena; DeWilton Phillips, Antwerp; Wm. Hall, Porter; Oliver Lyle, Decatur; Lorenzo C. Hurd, Paw Paw; P. T. Streater, Waverly; J. H. Wilcox, Geneva; Geo. Rose, South Haven; Frank Beals, Covert; Charles Clement, Pine Grove, and Homer Dyer, Almena. Jurors are required to be in attendance, on Monday, Nov. 27, at 9 o'clock a. m.

John Harrison husked 107 bushels of ears of corn in 9 1/2 hours, bound and set up his own shocks, one day last week for Henry Hawley.

Died, in Lawton, on Tuesday, the 7th inst., of rheumatism of the heart, Ishmael, son of I. Roberts, Esq., aged six years.

Observer's Observations.

Corn 40 cts.

Wheat 85 to 90 cts.

Brans $15.00 per ton.

Now is a good time to prepare for winter.

The days of muffs and boas are near at hand.

The political season is over—some are happy and some are not.

Dr. Nelson has bought the George Glidden property on Paw Paw street, and has taken possession.

Rolla E. Quick, the good looking cooper, has gone to Antrim county, to look up his interests there.

C. L. Fitch, Esq., has bought the house of M. P. Allen near the Baptist church, and moved into it.

Yellow Dock, an eastern flyer, got to the front one day last week, at Providence, R. I. in a trotting match for $2,000, in 2:11.

Alfred Lillie, of the Lee district, talks of moving to Wexford Co., this State, to engage in the grocery and provision trade.

Lucien H. Clark, near the Allen school house, has sold his farm of 160 acres to his brother, of Monroe county, N. Y., and will go to Dakota—price, $8,000.

Stephen D. Searles' Night Hawk got away from him one day last week, completely demolishing the carriage and leaving the honest granger spilled in the road.

Mrs. McKendrick has packed her household goods and shipped them. She will soon follow to North-Western Iowa, where her husband has been for the past few years, battering down the walls of sin.

An evenly balanced Waverly chap, with his hair parted in the middle and a pair of pigeon toed shoes on, was in town last Saturday and was overloaded with "sheep dip," (as the young grangers call it) so much so that he was making a perfect nuisance of himself wherever he went. The officers dare not arrest him as election was too near at hand, so he was let alone. He finally fetched up in Holmes & Spicer's grocery store where he sat down in a chair and fell asleep. Sam, who is always boiling over with the milk of human kindness, took him by the ear and led him out of doors and told him to go home to his ma. He is reported as belonging
